About the Voice Teacher:

Paul Grindlay has sung in choirs since he was nine years old. He has performed with such notable ensembles as VoiceScapes, Luminous Voices, The Phoenix Chamber Choir, Vancouver Cantata Singers, Vancouver Chamber Choir, musica intima, Tafelmusik Chamber Choir and Toronto Consort. He was a member of the 1990 National Youth Choir and the 1991 World Youth Choir. After completing a Bachelor of Science in zoology, then a Bachelor of Music in voice performance and opera, Paul pursued a solo vocal career which has taken him to Austria, Japan, England, the USA and across Canada to perform with opera companies, orchestras and choirs. He has recorded CDs of music for NAXOS Records, Marquis and Toccata Classics.

Paul has been the Artistic Director of the Calgary Boys' Choir since 2004, directed the Airdrie Community Choir for five seasons, founded and directed SuperSonic Men's Choir for three seasons. He conducts the choir at Knox Presbyterian Church and teaches voice at Mount Royal Conservatory of Music. Known especially for his work with male voices, Paul is in great demand as a performer, coach, conductor, clinician and adjudicator. In spare time he is most likely to be found guiding fly fishing trips on the Bow River, hiking with his wife, cooking or writing poetry.

The Toronto Physicians Choir, led by Choral Director Paul Genyk-Berezowsky, is a non-auditioned choir bringing together physicians, residents, and medical students to sing in harmony for the joy of it. Learn more at: www.torontophysicianschoir.ca
